

TITO TUIPULOTU

KEY STATS

NATIONALITY: Samoan

VILLAGES: Togafuafua, Manono, Vaiee, Apolima,

DATE OF BIRTH: 8/06/2002

POSITION: PROP

HEIGHT: 1.89m

WEIGHT: 120kg

BACKGROUND

Tito Tuipulotu was born and raised in Auckland and comes from a talented rugby family. He is the younger brother of All Black and Blues lock Patrick Tuipulotu and Hamdahn who has also played for the Blues and Auckland in NPC.

He attended St Peter's College and was captain of the school rugby team. Tuipulotu also played club rugby for Ponsonby.

In 2024, Tuipulotu joined Auckland as a replacement player in NPC and was then named in Moana Pasifika's 2025 squad.

He made his debut for Moana Pasifika in Round 1 of the 2025 Super Rugby Pacific season against the Western Force. The young hard working front rower became a mainstay in the starting lineup, earning the trust of coaches with his fearless mentality under pressure and diligence. Tuipulotu lets his actions do the talking.